Common Grounds Café

The ongoing question is…"How is the café doing?" Well, after 47 days, 1443 burgers, 1385 pizzas and 1627 specials (4455 meals), we are holding our own!
As you know, we bake our own pizza dough, hamburger buns and cookies nearly every day. In doing so, we go through about 25 lbs or flour, 4 lbs of butter, 14 cups of white/brown sugar, 1.5 dozen eggs, and 8 cups of chocolate chips every day!

The second question is…"How are the donations?" Currently donations remain consistent, and we continue to make ends meet. We appreciate everyone's willingness to give. We ask that you continue to "Pay from the Heart", whatever that looks like for you, so we can continue this ministry in our community.

And lastly people ask…"What are the needs at the café?" First and foremost is PRAYER, secondly is VOLUNTEERS. What does it mean to volunteer at Common Grounds Café? We have many opportunities during the hours of 10am – 8pm. We need people to help with food prep, cleaning, dishes, and serving our neighbors. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact us at the café and we will plug you in.

We want to thank everyone for your support. Whether you support financially, prayerfully, through volunteering or by stopping in for a meal we are grateful! God continues to provide opportunities for us to share His love with our neighbors.
